

Rafiki Global Scholars Statement of Understanding

By signing below, I confirm that:

- I commit to engaging fully in all learning opportunities, seeking feedback, and growing both academically and personally through the program.
- I will encourage and support my fellow scholars, understanding that we rise by lifting others.
- I will respect the diverse backgrounds, beliefs, and experiences of all program participants and staff, contributing to a supportive and inclusive environment.
- I will meet all deadlines and respond to requests from the program leadership team in a timely and responsible manner.
- I will attend all required program sessions, held Monday to Friday from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM, for the full duration of the program (July 14, 2025 – November 2, 2025).
- In the event of any challenges that may affect my participation, I will communicate with the RGS team promptly. All absences should be reported in not less than 24 hours, and emergencies no later than 7:00 AM the day in question.
- I will uphold the RGS Academic Integrity Policy and will not engage in plagiarism. I understand that representing someone else's work as my own or unauthorized use of AI tools will result in serious consequences, including potential removal from the program.
- I acknowledge that RGS does not 'grant' university admissions. RGS is a support and mentorship program to help me navigate the college application process.
- I recognize this opportunity as a privilege and will give my best in honor of those who believe in me and invest in my future.
- I understand that failure to meet the expectations outlined above will result in my immediate dismissal from the program.
